

WHEREAS, the spirit and quality of life of each human being in a community are greatly dependent upon the degree of equal access to quality housing, to meaningful employment, to equal opportunity in quality education, and to genuinely fair community services; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights, adopted on December 10, 1948, states that "All men shall have freedom of residence"; and

WHEREAS, the Foundation for Freedom and Democracy in Community Life is currently advancing a program of education in responsible individual voluntary action geared to deepen the channels of expanding individual freedom and democracy in a pluralistic society:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, urge all citizens to give appropriate thought and recognition to the invaluable and basic human rights which must be available to all Americans, including equal access to housing, employment and education.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 29th day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-three.

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR
